Letter dated 18 May 2000 from the Permanent Representative of the Democratic Republic of the Congo to the United Nations addressed to the President of the Security Council

The Government of the Democratic Republic of the Congo would like to inform you that it has before it the joint communiqué, signed at Kampala by the chiefs of staff of the Ugandan and Rwandan armed forces, concerning the demilitarization of the Congolese town of Kisangani.

My Government requests the Security Council to ensure that the occupation forces which would, under the terms of the joint communiqué, withdraw to the localities of Bafwasende, Banalia, Lubutu and Ubundu, not be redeployed to other fronts and conflict zones in the Democratic Republic of the Congo.

My Government, which reiterates its request to the Security Council for a strong condemnation of the aggression to which the Democratic Republic of the Congo is being subjected by the combined forces of Burundi, Uganda and Rwanda, asks the Council to demand that these aggressor countries simply withdraw their troops from the territory of the Democratic Republic of the Congo.

My Government requests you to have this letter circulated as a document of the Security Council.
